PERKINS CENTER GATHER ON THE GREEN CONCERT SERIES HAS ADDED A DANCE FLOOR!

Free and Low Cost Concerts Run From June Through August

Moorestown, NJ (June 15, 2023) – Perkins Center for the Arts announces the lineup of its outdoor summer concerts, hosting a diverse collection of local artists and entertainment sharing their art with the South Jersey area.

The Perkins Gather on the Green evolved in response to our communities' need to have accessible, diverse, and impactful arts based programs that promote gathering and healing. These events are family-friendly, pet-friendly, BYOC "Bring Your Own Chair," and support emerging and established artists. Concerts will be held rain or shine, thanks to the covered stage. This year's World Stage concerts will also have a dance floor, giving guests of all ages a place to groove to the music.

The Perkins Center for the Arts offers a diverse selection of summertime entertainment, including three distinct and unique experiences: Lawn Chair, Indie Night, and World Stage concerts. Concerts with a ticket fee support the performers directly.

The Lawn Chair Concert Series is comprised of local musicians varying from cover bands to independent musicians and invites guests to bring their chairs or blankets and enjoy the venue. The Indie Night Concert Series highlights indie music genres like indie rock, indie pop, folk, and experimental musicians and supports emerging musicians. The World Stage: Dance it Out Series uses Dance as a universal language to feature cultural performances from various regions worldwide.
